YOU ARE INVITED!

You, yes YOU are invited to attend a Weekend to Remember® Getaway! Those of you who are financial partners can attend for $39 a person! If you can't go, you can pass your savings on to someone else who needs to go. The rest of you can attend for $99.99 per person by using our group name: grayfl. Can you think of a better way to invest in your marriage? Great marriages don't just happen!

Why are we so passionate about FamilyLife's Weekend to Remember? It's because we have seen God change, heal, enrich, and save marriages, including our own! Our marriage went from good to fantastic in 2009 when we attended our first getaway. The tools we were given and the lessons we learned improved our communication and helped us to "fight fairly." Then we continued to grow through the Art of Marriage®, and the Art of Marriage Connect studies. Now, God keeps teaching us new things and reminding us of the things we previously learned. He is responsible for our great (not perfect) marriage!

Consider attending one of the Houston events (we will be at both of them). The first one will be held at the Royal Sonesta hotel in the Galleria area from June 9-11. The second one will be at the Sugar Land Marriott Town Square from June 16-18. Visit familylife.com/weekend to discover more about the getaway.

If you are a financial partner and you want to take advantage of your savings (whether you use the discount yourself or pass it on to a friend or family member), contact us. If you want to use our group name grayfl to save money, you can enter it in the designated box when you register online, or you can tell the service specialist who answers the phone at 1-800-FLTODAY. If you are not sure about how to register or you need any other assistance, please contact us!

If you decide to come to the event (I don't know why you wouldn't!), please look for us—we'd love to see you there!

Prayer Requests:

- ◆ Please pray that God would draw couples to the Houston and Austin events
- ◆ Please pray for us to prioritize our time wisely as we navigate these next 2 busy months

WHAT WE ARE DOING

God is continuing to open many doors and lead us to several God-ordained connections! Since our last newsletter, we were involved in the Houston Esteem Marriage workshop where we met approximately 40 local ministry leaders. Also, we thoroughly enjoyed our visit with the First Filipino Baptist Church in Houston. While there, we discovered that the interim pastor who invited us to the church is a leader over hundreds of churches in the Houston area. Coincidence? Not with our God!

We will head to South Padre Island the first week of

Scott addressing attendees of the Esteem Marriage workshop in Houston

May to begin our promotion there for the November 10-12 getaway. (You beach lovers out there might want to consider attending this event!) It's always good to connect with pastors and ministry leaders there who want to bring help and hope to marriages and families in the Rio Grande Valley!

We will return home for 4 days then out again for the final promotions in Austin (another getaway to consider) and Houston. The Austin event and the first Houston event are on the same weekend! Our manager will stand in for us in Austin while we are in Houston.

Thank you for your part in what God is doing in South Texas. We appreciate your prayers and all of your support. You make our work possible!
