@grayfamilylife going to #CRU 17

We are packing up once again to head out to Fort Collins, CO for CRU17! What is CRU17, you may ask? CRU17 is a biennial event hosted by CRU in Ft. Collins, Colorado where we (CRU missionaries) will gather from July 16-24 to seek to advance the kingdom by connecting with God, each other and the greater body of Christ. While there, we will have the opportunity to learn from various speakers, attend workshops, and enjoy some music and entertainment along the way, too!

In case you don't know or remember, CRU is a world-wide missionary organization. More than 20 ministries in the United States (including FamilyLife®) and various global ministries operate under its umbrella. God is at work all over the world through CRU!

If you want to keep up with what we're doing on the way there, while there, and on the way back (we'll be making some sightseeing stops on the way home), I'm going to resurrect our Twitter account (@grayfamilylife). We will be using #Cru17 and #RoadtoCru17, but if you search by those hashtags, you'll see other CRU members' tweets along with ours. Of course, you can simply follow us if you want to see only our tweets.

We would love to know if you are enjoying keeping up with us via Twitter. If there is enough interest, I plan to keep tweeting!

Thanks for praying for us!

Keep up with us
@grayfamilylife

Prayer Requests:

- Please pray that we will receive what the Lord has for us at CRU 17
- Please pray for protection from altitude sickness
- Please pray that we will come back refreshed

WHEN WE GET BACK

Woo-Hoo! When we get back, we will get to stay put for a while. After a busy travel season, we are looking forward to being stationary for several weeks. While home, in addition to catching up on our work in the office, we will complete a few repairs around the house and add a ceiling fan in our living room. You know how it is—never a dull moment!

If you've ever thought about coming through Little Rock, consider visiting us in August (or plan a Labor Day trip)! We can give you a behind-the-scenes tour at FamilyLife, show you some sights around town, and feed you some Texas cookin'! We may even have some other surprises up our sleeves!

Our South Padre Island event is scheduled for November 10-12. You may want to contemplate attending this Weekend to Remember® Getaway. The beach can be very pleasant that time of the year because of the milder temperatures. Of course, the benefits of attending the getaway make the trip worthwhile even if you don't like the beach!

Remember, if you are financial partners, you get the best price at $39 each ($78 per couple), and you can take advantage of that opportunity at any getaway, not only the one to be held on South Padre Island.

Visit familylife.com/weekend to learn about upcoming fall getaways, and let us know if you want to utilize the $39 per person rate!
